Inset: Artisan See-Through shown with Stainless Steel contemporary face and outdoor kit, and Diamond fireglass

Cover: Artisan with Stainless Steel face and Diamond fireglass

The Monessen Artisan Series brings the ambiance of a fireplace both indoors and out. Available in single-sided and see-through models, these vent free gas fireplaces are one of a kind, forever changing how you look at hearths.

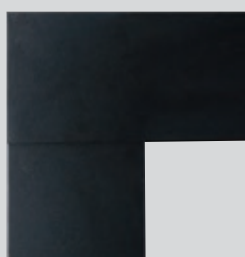

The Artisan See-Through enhances your fireside experience, linking the interior and exterior of your home with clean, contemporary lines and gorgeous flames. Its exclusive heat management system gives you the option to cozy on up to the warmth or to direct it to the outdoors, offering unmatched views without breaking a sweat. The final touches for both models are shimmering fireglass and LED lighting that transform these sleek fireplaces into an eye-catching show.

Optional Heat Management Kit

The Artisan See-Through's exclusive Heat Management System gives you the option to cozy on up to the warmth or to direct it to the outdoors, so you can enjoy the fire without the heat.

The Heat Management System is an optional feature with simple manual operation that allows you to direct heat outdoors through two standard ducts installed within the wall.

- 1 Cozy up to the warmth indoors
- 2 Or direct it outdoors
